

THE FULBRIGHT HILDEMAN FELLOWSHIP IN SCANDINAVIAN AREA STUDIES

at North Park University Chicago, Illinois

January-May 2026

Application deadline April 22, 2025

The Fulbright Commission will award the 2025-2026 Hildeman Fellowship to teach at North Park University in Chicago, Illinois during the spring semester 2026.

The School of Music, Art, and Theatre, the Center for Scandinavian Studies, and the Department of Scandinavian Studies is seeking a dynamic Swedish scholar/artist with experience in any of the following areas through the pedagogical practice of Music, Art, or Theatre: Belonging and Creation through Swedish cultural lens, Scandinavian Art/Music and Art/Music History, Comparative Indigenous Studies, Folk Music/Art, Improvisational Music/Art creation, Nordic storytelling. An interdisciplinary approach is greatly appreciated.

The Hildeman Fellow will:

- Teach one interdisciplinary undergraduate-level topics course (in English) (10-25 students.)
- Give a public lecture and performance or exhibition on a topic related to the area of expertise.
- Informally or formally advise/mentor/teach a small number of students with interest in the area of expertise. Potential applied instructor.
- Be in residence the entire spring term (January-May 2026).

Once the Fellow is selected, they will work closely with department faculty to design the course. The successful candidate will have opportunities to engage across the university campus with potential interdisciplinary and interdepartmental opportunities.

Endowed by the Hugo A. Anderson Chair in Scandinavian Studies in 1982 and created in 1984, the Center for Scandinavian Studies (CSS) at North Park University has firmly established itself as a major focal point for Scandinavian academic and cultural interests in Chicago. The CSS sponsors visiting professors, lectures, concerts, and exhibits, bringing many talented and accomplished Scandinavians to the city of Chicago. The programs of the School of Music, Art, and Theatre offer challenging curricula enriched by the diversity of voices throughout history and cultures. We prepare students for creative practice now and into the future: artists who are global citizens equipped for the changing professions of the 21st century. As an artistic community of students, faculty, and staff, we seek to increase awareness of civic responsibility and promote a culture of compassion through the intersection of faith and learning.
